

GREATER CHATHAM ALLIANCE

Protecting your investments and understanding how money works. GCA have recruited some of the brightest young minds in the industry to reveal the secrets to prosperity.

Jerome Bryant

MBA
Kellogg School of Management

Willette Graves

BA
University of Illinois at Chicago

Josh Youngblood

Financial Advisor
Northwestern Mutual

Save the date

JOIN GCA FOR A
FINANCIAL LITERACY
SEMINAR.

TOPIC:
HOW MONEY WORKS

APRIL 20, 2019
11:00 A.M. TO 1:00 P.M.

CRERAR MEMORIAL
PRESBYTERIAN
8100 S. CALUMET AVE.

PLENTY OF PARKING AND HANDICAP ACCESSIBLE

Awardee & Recognition

Community member(s) who will be recognized at the meeting

HORTENSE SCHAEFER

She and her family (husband and 3 children) moved to Chatham 62 years ago. She was a teacher in the Chicago Public Schools System. Now retired

TRESSIE HOLMAS

She and her family (husband and 1 child) moved to Chatham in 1963. She worked for Florshein Shoes for over 40 years. Now retired

Community Business Intro
The BlackMall

GREATER CHATHAM ALLIANCE (GCA)

MEETING LOCATION

CRERAR MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN
8100 S. CALUMET AVE.
APRIL 20, 2019
11:00 A.M. TO 1:00 P.M.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Jerome Bryant,
Investment Representative

Willette Graves,
Independent Agent

Josh Youngblood,
Financial Advisor

Bank Participants

Self Help (Seaway)
GN Bank (Illinois Federal)

Financial Literacy for the young and old;
Building and protecting your financial nest egg

CALLING THE YOUNG, THE SENIORS, AND EVERYONE IN BETWEEN TO JOIN US (GCA) AS WE LEARN HOW MONEY WORKS.

OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER WILL BE

JEROME BRYANT:

- Business executive with 23+ years of experience
- MBA in Finance from Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern Univ.
- Professional Licensed Insurance & Registered Investment Representative
- $500+ Million in Assets under Management
- Financial coach to clients of all backgrounds and financial situations

Jerome Bryant

